It is a point for consideration if the non muslim members can be counted for the required number. In this case there are more than 100 muslim members only 3 non muslims. But in a case where there are 50 muslims & 50 non muslims, the question is whether the Association would be considered to be an Association "formed for the furtherance of the special interest concerned or for its general advancement" within the meaning of Rule (a) of 21 (1).

27 It is also a point for consideration whether in such a case a non muslim might be elected.
